1. The question raised in paragraph 2 of reference (a) as to whether transfer allowances paid to any single family must be limited to $300 or $400 as appropriate or whether such payments may exceed such amounts was referred to the Office of General Counsel by the Comptroller for legal opinion.

2. This office is in receipt of a General Counsel opinion, OGC/B-7523a, dated 27 June 1957 to the Comptroller pertaining to the subject of Home Service Transfer Allowance which states in part as follows:

"The basic authority for home transfer allowance is permissive and is not payment to which an employee is entitled as a matter of right."
